

STONETRIP AND MIXAMO PARTNER TO DELIVER HIGH-QUALITY ANIMATION ASSETS TO ShiVa 3D USERS

Library of Animations and Motion Capture Data Makes Development on ShiVa 3D Faster and Easier

SOPHIA-ANTIPOLIS, France – June 2, 2010 – Stonetrip, a leading 3D engine company for games and 3D applications, and Mixamo (www.mixamo.com), a 3D character animation service that makes the end-to-end character animation experience faster and easier, today announced a partnership to bring high-quality animation assets to licensees of the ShiVa 3D development engine. The seamless integration of Mixamo’s collection of customizable animations and 3D character and animal models will enable developers to find motion assets for titles being developed on the ShiVa engine.

“We’re focused on making the process of creating high-quality 3D games as easy and seamless as possible,” said Philip Belhassen, CEO of Stonetrip. “Partnering with Mixamo gives us the ability to offer our users animations and motions that will improve the gameplay experience for their consumers.”

In six easy steps, characters can now be quickly animated with high-quality movements using Mixamo with ShiVa 3D. A tutorial to get interested developers started is now available at: <http://www.stonetrip.com/developer/652-character-animation-in-seconds>.

“We are partnering with Stonetrip because of the shared mission of our respective companies to make 3D game production faster and easier,” said Nazim Kareemi, CEO of Mixamo, Inc. “Mixamo is committed to providing the highest-quality 3D characters and animations in the industry; with our new fully-rigged character creator feature and quadruped animal animations, ShiVa users will see a significant boost in their productivity.”
